and more than twenty thousand men, many of whom were discharged. Upon the same gate on the one side were painted these armies, to wit: those of his Holiness in the middle, at the left hand the Princes, and at the right hand those of the Catholic King, with this writing:

Angelii gaudent, mortales exultant, Margaritam Augusti sanguinis pietatis virtutumque omnium splendore lucidissimam, simul latissime excipiunt.

Which is Enriched

The Angel receives, and his Holiness receives, and the Catholic King receives, Margaritam Augusti sanguinis pietatis virtutumque omnium splendore lucidissimam, simul latissime excipiunt.
